

EDUCATION

---

Johns Hopkins University, School of Advanced International Studies Master of Arts, International Relations & International Economics	Washington, DC 2012 – 2014
Rhodes College Bachelor of Arts, International Studies & Economics	Memphis, TN 2004 – 2008

RELEVANT PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

---

Keybridge Senior Director	Washington, DC 2009 – Present
-------------------------------------	----------------------------------

Serves as an economic and policy advisor to industry associations and government agencies. Applies expertise in economics, program and policy evaluation, and data analytics to a range of public policy issues, focusing on energy and environmental policy, infrastructure policy, and flood insurance markets. Provides strategic and policy consulting services, designs analytical frameworks for policy and impact analyses, and delivers senior-level briefings.

Johns Hopkins University Teaching Assistant	Washington, DC 2014
---	------------------------

Developed lesson plans and delivered twice-weekly lectures on energy-related quantitative methods, current energy policy issues, and policy writing. Created and graded regular assignments and exams.

International Crisis Group Advocacy Intern	Washington, DC 2008
--	------------------------

Researched U.S. Afghanistan policy and incorporated findings into ICG speeches and reports. Wrote and presented analytical notes on a range of foreign policy issues.

CORE COMPETENCIES

---

- Performance Metric Design & Evaluation
- Program Evaluation
- Economic Analysis
- Decision Analytics
- Database Design & Management
- Environmental Scanning
- Customer Segmentation
- Data Visualization
- Regulatory & Policy Impact Analysis
- Statistics & Econometrics
- Project Management
- Survey Design & Administration